WEATHER PROBABILITIES —For this section partly cloudy tonight and Friday; warmer tonight; fresh to brisk southerly winds.

COLUMBIA FIRE COMPANY .- The thi ty-first annual meeting of the Columbia Fire Company was held last night, Wm. A Smoot, president, in the chair. Forty-three members answered to the roll call. Two new members were elected and two applications for mem-bership were received. The executive bership were received. The executive committee made their annual report which was adopted. The company then recommended Engineer W. H. Wood and Drivers Henry Posey and Stephen Taylor to the Fire Wardens for reflection and compilmented them for their efficiency. The president read the names on the back of a ploture that was taken on February 22, 1888, which is his custom, and marked the names of those that have died. Each year there have been two names marked. For last year those of Allen T. Ramsay and Geo. A. Appich were marked. An election of officers for the enguing year followed, each candidate being elected election of officers for the ensuing year followed, each candidate being elected by a rising vote with the following re-suit: President, Wm. A. Smoot; Frst Vice President, Geo. Uhler; Second Vice President, Wm. K. Griffith; Re-cording Secretary, Norman C. Treski, Assistant Recording Secretary, Ches.
Appiet; Treasurer, Elward Hughee;
Foreman, John Leadbeater; Commander, Cuarles Hepourn; First Assistant Commander, Benjamin R
Hughee; Second Assistant Commander, Rugner, Second Assistant Communication, Stewart M. Jones; Pipemen, Walter Hugnes, Liuis Brill, jr., W. Bradley, Andrew Sullivan, Charles Steele and Fred Higgies; Hosemen, Charles Herbert, Horaca Allen, Eiton Shion, Ernest Cook, Clarence Ticer and Thomas Dawn, y. Armen, Eiward Thomas Downey, Azemen, Eiward Lawler and John Desliva; Executive Committee, Geo. Unler, Charles W. Duffey and Eiward S. Leadbeater. Eagineer Wood was then called on to appoint his three firemen for the en-After complimenting his old firemen for the manner in which they have assisted him with his engine, he said that they suited him exactly, and suppointed Samuel T. Jenkios, Frank L. Entwisie and Fred Ford. Those three have been with him for a number of years. After adopting ruitable resolutions in respect to the memory of the late George A. Appleb, the meeting adjourned.

A DECIDED LULL .- As is generally the case after the close of the holiday s-ason, there is a decided full in everything throughout and extreme quistees prevalls everywhere. There have been no cases for trial in the Police Court for the past three days, nor has there been any disorders. The police report last night as having been very quiet. The lethargy in a business point of view will probably continue for a few days, but there is every indication of an impetus being imparted to all Alexandria industries during 1902. As was stated in the Gazette on the last day of the old year, the city is apparently at the threshold of a new era, and while some of the beneficial effects are being felt, there is believed to be much more in store for the near future. The city has started the near future. The city has started aright, and although some of its enterprises are as yet embryonic, the out-look is encouraging. The few industries which have been inaugurated here will aurely grow, and there is reason to be-lieve they are the pioneers of others. With work for all money will be put in circulation and every branch of trade will be benefitted.

INCREASED TRADE .- A cigar manufacturer in talking to a representative of the Gszette today said his trade has increased considerably during the past month or two, and he was much encouraged at the outlook for the present couraged at the outlook for the present year, It would be well for all to take a more optimistic view of things and when business sifairs are satisfactory to acknowledge the fact. It encourages others and is a rebuke to many who imagine business is aiways slow. The manufacture of cigars has been on a steady increase in Alexandria for several years past and the industry affords al years past and the industry affords employment to a large number of people. It was in years gone by one of the staple manufactures of Alexandria. but from one cause or another was allowed to lag. Those now engaged in the business are industrious and enterprising people, and they are slowly but surely forcing it to the high water mark of by-gone days.

THE GAZETTE, Alexandria, with its issue of Tuesday, completed its one hundred and second consecutive volume. In all the years of its publication the Gazette has looked closely to the interests of the city of Alexandria and adjacent section. As a consequence the Gazette is a welcome visitor to hundreds of households. Besides being hundreds of households. Besides being an excellent local paper, the Gazette presents the leading events of the day in a condensed form. It enters upon its one hundred and third volume with a well-deserved subscription and advertising patronage.-[Baltimore Sun

DISCARDING THE TREES —The usual amount of dead cedar is seen in the streets, one of the last evidences of the holiday season. Much labor of love is employed in dressing Christmas trees and no little trouble experienced in undressing them. Yet many think they are the sine qua non of the occasion, and to pass through Christmas without a tree would be Hamlet minus. Hamlet. They evidently please the little folks, and anything within reason which can add to their smiles should not be neglected.

IMPROVING.—The condition of City-Eagineer Marye, of Newport News, who lies at the hospital in that city dangerously wounded by a pistol ball fired by Mr. C. A. Ashby, Monday, is thought to be improving. Every hour now gives more hope for the patient, and hele holding his own remarkably well. He passed a very quiet night, and has been resting easily all day.

MEETING.—The annual meeting of the [stockholders of the George W Knox Express Company was held today at the office of the company, No. 212 King street, when all the old of-floors were re-elected.

LOCAL BREVITIES. -Lucky is he who on this day, With New Year's on the wane 'Mid thoughts of yesternight can say He has no ache or pain.

Eleven lodgers were entertained a Rev. E. V. Regester, of this city, assisted in the funeral ceremonies of the late James W. Barker in Washington, yesterday. The ice drifting up and down the river with the tides last week cut every trace of paint from the buoys marking the river channel, and on a dull, cloudy day it is almost impossible to make them out at any distance away. The lighthouse service will not repair these buoys until after the winter is over. The County Court was not in session today but will be again tomorrow, when the matter of a new road in Washington district will be further consided.

The annual meeting of the Relief Hook and Ladder Company will be held tomorrow night, at which the election of officers will take place.

The dance to have been given by the Alexandria German Club en tomorrow night has been postponed until Friday, January 10

The lady managers of the proposed fair for the benefit of the Alexandria Light Infantry will meet tonight. The first rehearsal of "charps and Flate" for the year 1902, will take place this evening at 7:45 o'clock.

WASHINGTON, D. C.

RAN AMUCK IN CHURCH .- At 2 o'clock yesterday morning, while 500 negroes were holding a watchnight service in a Charleston, S. C., church, Thomas Dougherty made a sensational entrance with a Colt's revolver in his hand. With a wild yell he announced his arrival, and deacons rushed up to prevent trouble. "Babe" Coakley, a notorious character, who was out of his element in a house of worship, attempted to take the gun from Dougherty, and was knocked down. The minister had to dodge flying lead when Daugherty began shooting, but he es-caped harm. Coakley was killed in the "amen corner." With the revolcaped barm. Coakley was killed in the "amen corner." With the revolver still raised, Dougherty left the church, daring the pegroes to follow. He was pursued for two miles by a posse and was captured later. Dough-erty came from Indiana last week, and was employed at the racetrack.

THE WORLD'S WORK for January has been received from its publishers in New York. This Magazine presents a complete interpretation of the events of each month, so treated as to show their bearing on the larger forces of our time. Every number of the World's Work has several full page photographs of the makers of present-day history.

JANUARY BARGAINS .- January is the month for bargains of all kinds in the stores, and people of foresight reserve means to take advantage of them. It is a mistake to assume that people spend all their savings before the holidays. There is hardly any kind of business which cannot be greatly improved by
